NEW PILGRIM CHRONICLES

So what is this Free State Project?

- ❑ The Free State Project (FSP) is the brainchild of Yale scholar-lecturer Jason Sorens to bring freedom-loving people to one state to concentrate efforts for liberty.
- ❑ They picked New Hampshire, the “live free or die” state.
- ❑ New Hampshire has become the new “Freedom Portal;” heroic activists are rolling back many rights infringements.
- ❑ Hundreds of people are coming to the Free State to create a new liberated country with a small, constitutional government as a beacon to other states and to the world.

The New Pilgrim Chronicles (NPC)

- ❑ In 2005, Michigan/Texas freedom activist, writer, and intrepid traveler, Brian Wright, decided to move to the Free State to be part of the action.
- ❑ To encourage others to join him, he wrote 12 weekly journals describing real life in New Hampshire from his road-warrior, commoner perspective.
- ❑ Brian then turned his journals into a book, in which he shares important victories the freedom fighters have achieved along with many helpful insights gained from these brave, loving people now living and growing at the Portal.
- ❑ NPC shows people practical, humane ways of getting ourselves “unstuck.”

Take part in creating a free world

- ❑ Read the New Pilgrim Chronicles and share it with your friends; if you can, please come to the Freedom Portal where it's all happening today.
- ❑ We will achieve freedom in our country and on our planet... soon.

*“I eagerly await reading of the New Pilgrim Chronicles each week. The writing is clear, strong and engaging. It makes you keep wanting more. He captures the essence of why people are moving to New Hampshire for more freedom. In fact, I hope that Brian writes a followup series.”*

—Chris Lawless, computer scientist, Free State Project, “First 1000” early mover.
