

OSAMA REDUX

Osama died years ago, recent hoax a false flag threat to Americans and all of humanity

by Brian Wright

Yes, the Osama bin Laden event is cause for celebration... for our imminent deliverance from the mind-control media and starting to take major steps down the path of independent mind. I've been thinking about your heartfelt inquiry. Thanks for inspiring me to put together a guest column last night, then the following response, which I have sent to all my Coffee Coaster subscribers:

Osama Redux

As in reduction to the absurd:

On Sunday, May 1, 2011, some poor, presumably tall, Arab-'terrorist' CIA-front-operative (presumably) resembling the Biggest Gahuna (Osama bin Laden (OBL)) of the Biggest Lie (Official Story of 9/11) of the Century has apparently been ceremoniously shot by a team of US-government military-and-spook commandos... then (we're told a corpse representing said OBL) was dumped into the ocean from a Navy helicopter. (Something is certainly fishy about THAT!)

Here is my guest column with the information on the true likely death of OBL--whom even according to the FBI was never a suspect in the 9/11 attacks--years ago. Followed by another great column by Paul Craig Roberts on what the 'death' is intended to accomplish:

As the Guardian and European newspapers have revealed, the photo of the dead bin Laden is a fake. As the alleged body has been dumped into the ocean, nothing remains but the word of the US government, which lied about Iraqi weapons of mass destruction and al Qaeda connections, about yellowcake, about Iranian nukes, and, according to thousands of experts, about 9/11. Suddenly the government is telling us the truth about bin Laden's death? If you believe that, I have a bridge in Brooklyn that I'll let you have for a good price.

My initial interpretation of the faked bin Laden death was that Obama needed closure of the Afghan war and occupation in order to deal with the US budget deficit. Subsequent statements from Obama regime officials suggest that the agenda might be to give Americans a piece of war victory in order to boost their lagging enthusiasm. The military/security complex will become richer and more powerful, and Americans will be rewarded with vicarious pleasure in victory over enemies.

Wake up citizens of the world! Especially, brain-sucked-dry Americans. The government and its Media Ministry 'pressitutes' are in a war for your mind: don't give it to them. Think and examine the facts. Just as the citizens of Germany being told the Reichstag Fire was caused by Jews and commies, you are being set up. 9/11 and Osama-based terror are bogus false-flag operations of the Leviathan Global State intended to scare you silly and drop your reason--your critical faculty. That faculty is the only thing that can call the giant bluff of these true agents of state terror--the totalitarian police-state on steroids (literally)--and effect a world of genuine freedom and abundance. You make the choice: think for yourself and live well; think for yourself or die.. most likely in the FEMA camps.

The one good thing about this desperate, mind-fornicating act of the ruling elites via its mainstream media 'pressitutes'--love that word, thanks Paul Craig--is we can now call into question the whole miserable, systematic Cartel apparatus of continuous mass-deceit. If you get your news through TV and other MM, you're an obvious victim of falsehood and mindless totalitarian fascism... call it Set X. If you get your news through the Web and alternative media you have a fighting chance to learn the truth and take part in the libertarian resistance and restoration of the Republic... call it Set Y.

With Osama Redux, there is no doubt--barring imminent police-state terror and mass incarcerations of millions of truth 'dissidents'--that Set Y is going to be supplanting Set X, and fairly quickly. Soon, nobody is ever going to believe the government about anything. I can feel the fresh air of truth flowing over the land already. Thanks, Osama, that's one unintended consequence you probably never imagined when you threw your hat into the ring with Spookus Americanus.

So, yes, it is another government lie. A bad one, and it will not end well for the liars.

Let me know thoughts on the Griffin piece on 9/11. It's truly liberating, and I think I've called it to your attention before. No hurry, but this is a good time to begin going to the roots of the deceit. I also hope you don't mind me copying this response to others. The Griffin piece is a revelation, a pinnacle of reason, as well as a foundation of truth in the overall storm of statist-media contrivance. We needed to air this out, 9/11 Truth is coming for breakfast. I welcome any discussion. I also encourage you to read my recent review of Griffin's book on the destruction of World Trade Center Building #7.

Please access the Alex Jones site for deep and true information about 9/11, Osama bin Laden, and all the various government false flag operations. The following guest is revolutionary, namely an insider who intends to blow the whistle on the 9/11 conspirators in federal and/or state court:

Dr. Steve Pieczenik reveals 9/11 an inside job

Top US government insider Dr. Steve R. Pieczenik, a man who held numerous different influential positions under three different Presidents and still works with the Defense Department, shockingly told The Alex Jones Show yesterday that Osama Bin Laden died in 2001 and that he was prepared to testify in front of a grand jury how a top general told him directly that 9/11 was a false flag inside job.

Pieczenik cannot be dismissed as a "conspiracy theorist". He served as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of State under three different administrations, Nixon, Ford and Carter, while also working under Reagan and Bush senior, and still works as a consultant for the Department of Defense. A former US Navy Captain, Pieczenik achieved two prestigious Harry C. Solomon Awards at the Harvard Medical School as he simultaneously completed a PhD at MIT.

Recruited by Lawrence Eagleburger as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Management, Pieczenik went on to develop, "the basic tenets for psychological warfare, counter terrorism, strategy and tactics for transcultural negotiations for the US State Department, military and intelligence communities and other agencies of the US Government," while also developing foundational strategies for hostage rescue that were later employed around the world.

Pieczenik also served as a senior policy planner under Secretaries Henry Kissinger, Cyrus Vance, George Schultz and James Baker and worked on George W. Bush's election campaign against Al Gore. His record underscores the fact that he is one of the most deeply connected men in intelligence circles over the past three decades plus.

Please go to infowars.com and call the White House and Department of Homeland Security to warn them of the false flag terror act of Osama bin Laden's false death and false flag acts of terror to come.
