

Dear Dr. Roberts,

I have written to you repeatedly for months and months now, without reply. In my letters, I have told you of two watershed events in American political and legal history. Both desperately need and profoundly merit your attention, but my poor communication skill have failed to make this clear.

Please, PLEASE allow me to try again. PLEASE read this through.

The first of these watershed events was the modern re-discovery of the actual legal limits on federal taxing power. These limits, though firmly grounded in the Constitution, and plainly incorporated in federal tax statutes, had become broadly misunderstood by the mid-1930s and became even more so over most of the years since. And yet, these limits remain the law of the land, as has been repeatedly affirmed by the U.S. Supreme Court over the years-- not just in principle, but in the concrete expressions in the relevant statutes.

Further, these limits were imposed, and heavily relied upon, by the founders and framers as one of the most important checks against a runaway state. Nonetheless, encouragement of a view of the state as unlimited in any respect by a perverse class of intellectuals, the traumas of the middle third of the 20th century, a general dumbing-down of American education, and the fact that the statutory implementation of these limits hides within a 3.5-million-word "tax code" all conspired to allow them to be routinely unrecognized and thus violated in practice on a massive scale for decades now. It was not until the law was digitized and made easily researched that sunlight began penetrating the darkness.

Eight years ago, the ice broke. The truth about these limits was first posted on the internet in December, 2002, and then presented more comprehensively in a book first published in August of 2003. The book, 'Cracking the Code- The Fascinating Truth About Taxation In America', is now in its twelfth printing, and is also available as a free .pdf.

A steadily-growing number of Americans began learning the actual limits on federal taxes which are imposed by the Constitution, and are faithfully implemented in the statutes. A steadily-growing number of Americans-- now numbering in AT LEAST the tens of thousands-- have been successfully reclaiming every penny taken from them in federal taxes INCLUDING SOCIAL SECURITY AND MEDICARE TAXES for all of these eight years.

These good Americans have been standing up and shaking off the chains put on them while they slept in a "progressive" stupor. They have resumed the control over their own resources they were always intended to retain by the founders of this great country, a control which is the very heart of the framers' design of our brilliant, Leviathan-hobbling Constitution.

WHY HAVE YOU CONTINUED TO IGNORE THIS??!!

Have you not dreamed of the day when tens of thousands of Americans turn off 'American Idol' and 'Monday Night Football' and begin studying the law, rediscover their own authority and the proper limited role of the state, and peacefully but adamantly stand up to do something about it?

That day is upon you! Indeed, it began years ago. But you have not afforded these brave and dedicated men and women a single word of encouragement, praise, or even recognition. You have not helped their numbers climb into the millions.

WHY?

I really don't understand. Do you think I am lying to you about one single thing I'm saying?

Go to losthorizons.com. Read through the page that address brings you to, and follow the indicated links to see page after page of checks, "case closing notices", levy releases, judicial stipulations and more.

See fully-documented cases in which the IRS or other tax agencies attempted to discourage the informed American and thwart their claims, only to surrender in the end and issue the check, or a written acknowledgment that despite considerable conventional earnings, no "income" was received, and no taxes are due.

See videos in which your neighbors and fellow citizens describe their own experiences in making use of this information (and display the results).

There are millions of dollars-worth of these concrete expressions of the truth to be viewed, thanks to the tell-the-world generosity of some of the upright men and women who have secured these victories for the rule of law.

In short, these are not just words. The evidence is all posted for you to see.

In fact, government attorneys admitted to everything I've just described, in court, just a year-and-a-half ago. They did this as a stipulation, in order to prevent the jury in that case from seeing the details of these cases. Their hope was that the jury would just imagine that all of these tens of thousands of events over the course of eight years and counting, many being enjoyed by the same folks over and over year after year, and sometimes after intense scrutiny, attention and even resistance by the government, are just a sort of sustained "slip-through-the-cracks" that the 122,000 worker IRS can't seem to stop...

That's the Kool-Aid they hope YOU'LL drink, too, by the way...

Don't drink. Just think.

WHY all this has been happening continuously, and in ever-increasing volume, will be unknown to you, of course. But that doesn't mean it's not happening. It just means that to understand the why YOU have to do some studying, if you wish.

BUT DON'T PRETEND IT'S NOT HAPPENING! DON'T DENY THE EVIDENCE OF YOUR OWN EYES!!

Don't sip the Kool-Aid. DID YOU NOT READ WHAT I SAID A MOMENT AGO? At losthorizons.com you will see scores of fully-documented cases of the government struggling to threaten, browbeat and wear-out educated Americans demanding the return of their property before finally surrendering and issuing the check (along with hundreds and hundreds of the much more typical cases in which the checks and other admissions just issue without delay)!

That brings us to the other watershed event: the unprecedented federal effort to suppress this liberating, Leviathan-hobbling information.

For the entirety of the eight years since this information was first published, the feds have engaged in a relentless campaign of dis-information, "legal" assaults, smear pieces in the main-stream-media, and wall-of-sound obfuscations in courtrooms and DoJ press releases partaking of the "it all depends on what the meaning of "is" is" sharp practice with which the federal BS mills have become so free when attacking any restraint under which the rogue state still chafes.

Do you think you saw a lot of bull attempting to obscure the real meaning of torture over the last few years? It's nothing compared to the mare's nest of lies and dodges issuing forth for eight years now to preserve a scam providing the political class with a couple trillion dollars-worth of corrupt, ruinous control over the lives of all Americans.

Those lies are deployed to keep Americans who haven't already done so from studying this information, but more than anything they are deployed to keep people like you from reporting on all this. If you DID break free of that control, you'd find the cover-up almost as important a story as what's being covered up. You'd find yourself reporting on not only the truth about the tax, and the victories being constantly enjoyed by those who have learned it, but also about a vicious assault on the tattered vestiges of the rule of law taking place in an effort to halt this march.

For instance, a federal judge has been induced to order two Americans to rescind sworn testimony, and replace it with testimony dictated by the government, over their own signatures.

Another federal judge was induced to deny a JURY'S REQUEST to see the actual language of statutes relevant to a criminal trial, allowing it to only see a prosecution-written "interpretation" of those statutes instead. The reasoning given was that seeing the actual words of the statutes might cause the jury to "speculate as to the meaning of the statutes"!

This same judge allowed the prosecution to introduce as evidence 739 pages of documents containing declarations calculated to suggest that the defendant was deemed guilty of technical aspects of the charges by "tax experts". Indeed, the judge actually instructed the jury that this is what it was to understand from these documents. But he let them into evidence (over the defendant's strenuous objection) without requiring the government to put any witness on the stand to be questioned about them.

At least three times since the liberating truth about the tax was first published, forms published by the Treasury Department that incorporate and implement aspects of the limitations of the tax have been reworded so as to make their use more difficult to discern, even while they continue to be used by educated Americans for their proper purpose and continue to be properly honored in this use. The IRS has repeatedly published a carefully and subtly INACCURATE description of the true nature of the tax and its limits as one of its "Dirty Dozen" "tax scams"-- even while continuing to honor the tens of thousands of claims made based on the ACCURATE information about the tax.

A HUGE amount of effort has been made to publicize the conviction of the author of this research for "filing false tax documents" (those'd be the ones the law concerning which the jury was not allowed to see...), and who has been languishing in prison for a year now waiting for his appeal of the outrages committed in the trial to get heard, EVEN WHILE THE TENS OF THOUSANDS CONTINUE TO GET THEIR MONEY BACK AGAIN AND AGAIN.

Everything now being done to suppress this dagger of truth hanging over the heart of a voracious, lawless Leviathan is a precedent that will be used against something else and someone else in future, if it isn't STOPPED NOW. But it WON'T be stopped, unless YOU SPEAK UP and lend the weight of your voice to this worthy cause and these worthy Americans who are looking out for YOUR RIGHTS, but doing so without your help.

Besides that, admit it. A good American like you belongs in the ranks of the "doers", not sitting on the sideline griping about how no one is doing anything while the country sinks into despotism and despair.

The truth about all this-- the limits of the tax, and the exploitation of widespread ignorance thereof-- is not sound-bite stuff. Understanding it takes time, study, effort. It is especially hard to overcome a lifetime of conditioning intended to make these things seem to be alien concepts ("What? The government CAN'T just take all that it wants from us, and leave us only what it deems sufficient for our purposes? Our grandparents DIDN'T give it this power-- a power I myself, and everyone I know, even the liberals, wouldn't dream of giving to anyone in a million years?").

But you don't have to be an expert on the tax to report on this, anymore than you have to be a tailor to recognize and report on the Emperor's nakedness.

Furthermore, tens of thousands of your neighbors HAVE spent that time, study and effort, and all have come to the same conclusion. Like one, each has then risen and acted. See what they have done, and recognize that even though YOU haven't yet learned the truth that inspired them, there MUST be something real to be learned.

These dedicated and inspiring Americans are lawyers, CPAs, doctors, professors, truck drivers, burger-flippers and folks from every other walk of life, level of education, and relationship to the status quo. The claims they have made and had satisfied range from as little as a single dollar to six figure amounts, and all those claims are being made in the clear-eyed knowledge that THE STATE WILL DO ANYTHING IT THINKS IT CAN GET AWAY WITH TO STOP THEM. Read that last line again, and realize that no one is doing this for the money. This is being done for honor, dignity, respect for the law, and the wellbeing of the next generation.

PLEASE, Dr. Roberts, PLEASE.

Take note of all this. Lend the power of your voice to this honorable and virtuous effort to restore and uphold the law, even if only by praising those who are doing the rising and standing.

I have long been a devoted fan of yours, and have shared your work with a vast number of others on my mailing list and through postings on my 1.25-million-hit-per-month website. That won't change.

But it's been well said that when evil men combine, good men must come together and act, lest they be victimized one by one.

Besides, think about how many times you have reflected on the evils of the income tax as it has been being applied over the last few 75 years-- evils both political and economic. You can now play an important part in locking the hateful thing back down to its lawful limits, changing it from a snarling and rabid junk-yard dog into a purring pussycat. Why would you hesitate for a moment?

Best Regards,
-Pete Hendrickson
